

First City Art Center Creatisphere Summer Art Camp Teaching Opportunity

First City Art Center is seeking enthusiastic and creative teachers for Creatisphere Summer Art Camp. Creatisphere inspires the imagination of emerging artists through active learning, and hands-on exploration of creative mediums. The camps feature a variety of mediums, as well as incorporating science, history, conservation, world cultures, yoga, and games into the weekly themes. The goal of the program is to offer engaging, creative experiences, in which children are encouraged to experiment, innovate, and CREATE.

Responsibilities:

Teachers are responsible for executing lesson plans following the weekly theme, which incorporate contextual information and history, relative vocabulary, and hands-on activities. Projects should include technique, process, and skill building, while still allowing for exploration, play, and flexibility. Teachers should be energetic, creative, positive, flexible to change, have strong classroom management skills, and enjoy working with children.

Details:

- Weekly camps offered May 27th - August 9th, 9 am - 4 pm.
- Teachers typically lead camp for 4 hours each day.
- Class size: 8-12 campers
- This is a 1099 independent contract position, no benefits are offered.
- Pay is based on experience: $15+ per hour

Requirements:

- Available to teach +7 weeks during the summer, and work 20-25 hours per week.
- Able to lift 25 lbs, and work on their feet throughout each shift.
- Experience in youth educational environment
- Basic understanding of and willing to learn various artistic processes
- Pass Background Screening
- Teaching certification is not required, but is a plus.

Contact/Apply:

- Questions/Contact: Raylene Solis, Create@firstcityart.org. (850) 429 -1222
- More info visit FirstCityArt.org